Param Hari Bhakta
Shri Prem Misra Ji,
President,
Mukti-Gupteshwar Mandir Society,
Campbelltown, NSW 2560,
Australia.

Om Namo Narayan.

Received your letter containing the auspicious news of Mahakumbhabhishekam of this unique Jyotirlingam of Mukti-Gupteshwar Mahadev in such a distant land like Asutralia. Our Vedas have proclaimed ages ago, quite boldly the slogan of 'Krinvanto Vishvam Aryam'. By consecrating this temple, your society is doing exactly that job in the manner of our ancient Rishis and Sages who were motivated solely by noble spirit and lofty ideals.

In Bharatvarsha, the twelve Jyotirlingas were established and sanctified by Revered Holiness Sri Adi Shankaracharya. They are scattered all over India and their pilgrimage brings about, not only the sense of religiosity but also a spirit of unity and integrity among the citizens of India. This 13th Jyotirlinga is situated in such a far off land and in a different continent which, I am sure, will definitely promote the sense of integrity and unity on global level. I extend my whole hearted best wishes for the ceremony of the Mahakumbhabhishekam going to take place on 22nd February, 2004 and wish the function a grand success.

May Lord Mahadev bless this holy project and also the devotees visiting and having the holy 'Darshan' at this unique temple.

In The Service Of Humanity,
Swami Satyamitranand Giri.
